THE MINIDOKA CHURCHMAN

Vol. III No. 8 HUNT, IDAHO Sat. May 27, 1944

AS MOTHERS VIEW IT

HOWARD CHANDLER ROBBINS

Little son, the men folk go,
Forth in arms to meet the foe;
Fighting for the homeland holy;
Forth like men the men folk go.
Brother, husband, friend are gone;
Thou and I are left alone.

Little son, if prayers are vain,
If the brave come not again,
If, to save the homeland holy,
God requires the final pain, -
Precious son, live, thou to be
Brother, husband, friend to me.-

COLLECT

O god, who as at this time didst teach the hearts of thy faithful people, by sending to them the light of thy Holy Spirit; Grant us by the same Spirit to have a right judgment inall things and evermore to rejoice in his holy comfort; thru the merits of Christ Jesus our Saviour, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the same Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen

IN THE MAIL BAG

Edgewood Arsenal, Maryland, Sgt. Harry Kataoka.....
Five other fellows and I from Camp Maxey arrived here on the 23rd of April for special duty. There are 40 of usNisei boys comprising this group and undergoing this work. All of us are from the various camps in Texas. We are indeed fortunate in being stationed near Baltimore, Philadelphia, Washington, D.C. and New York. This week end we are planning to visit Philadelphia and I understand some of our church members are there. I'm hoping for an opportunity torun across some of them too. My best regards to all.
George Kakehashi, Nashotah House, Wisconsin...I spent my week-end in Madison with the Mimbus and had a grant time. While there I saw Iwao and Mae Hara,Mrs Masa Kimura Okada and Morris Abe. Oh yes, also Mr. & Mrs. Hibbard, formerly director of National Student Relocation. It certainly was grand to see them all with the intention of staying for about an hour, and, the first thing we know the hour longthened to two and then three. We had a grand reunion chatting about our experiences. Yesterday morning Bill and I went to Grace Church.
Lenox School, Howard Suzuki...Last Saturday I had a very frank talk with a couple of the boys here. He started to talk about Yamamoto article in the Life, magazine. His opinion was that he'd do practically anything to fight the racial prejudice we're up against. I gave them more or less a clear picture on the relocation centers. Continuing he said "If the same incident happened here in Lenox I'll bet that the whole school will be behind you." That was a great encouragement. I wish there is more of those people backing up our rights.

Yoshiko Nakatsu, 3757 So. Ellis, Chicago, Ill..Chicago is really a metropolis like you see in the movies, big crowded, yes--crowded! We have to push our way around Chicago is confusing because it is so huge. I am, however, slowly adjusting myself to this fast moving, fascinating, exciting yet dirty city. My days seem to fly and I wish I had more spare moments for my "corries". After work all the gilrs pitch in the cooking and preparation of the dinner. After the meals comes the dishes. Then exchange of news of the day and before you know it, it's time to wash up and into bed.

Alice Uchida, Kemper Hall, Kenosha, Wisconsin...I received a letter from Shig the other day telling about how he is milking the cows early in the morning. He's fine and happy there as I am here..Since Spring has come we've had outdoor sports and at this moment Iache all over for a few days ago, I had jumped hurdles, and high jumped, and played baseball all in one day but I love it.

Miss June Oda, Boise, Idaho...Over half of this school term is already gone by! Last Monday began the new term so I received my card. Betty and I attended an organ concert presented by Canon Marner last Sunday evening. It was really grand and I am so glad that I went. Monday night we attended a concert presented by Bidu Sayao, soprano of the Metropolitan Opera. It was really super. She is a Brazilian, so she has the lovelie st English accent. Tuesday I played a solo at the Tuesday Musicale Club, and Sunday I shall play at the Jr. College in a small recital presented by different teachers who aremembers of an certain organization.

Teruko Akagi, 271 Forest Street, Oberlin, Ohio. I saw my sister two weeks ago in Chicago and I certainly had a grand time. I left Oberlin Friday afternoon after making arrangements with my classes, spent two night there and came back on the 11:40 P. M. train on Sunday and arrived here early in the morning on Monday. My heaviest schedule happens to fall on Monday so you can imagine how tired I was. On top of that I had to attend a rehearsal in the evening for the Bach's "B" Minor Mass" which lasted two hours and I could harly keep my eyes open.
